Poor Crisp!
Bill Morrison is elected despite the gerrymander.

A democratic governor in Michigan.

Wonder if the crowd still puns upon the name of Mr. Graves?

Illinois elects a democratic congressman, a gain of 3, and the legislature is in doubt.

The Mexicans are considering the subject of a reciprocity treaty with the United States.

Chicago Times: "Direction to the boss now on the political stage: 'Executive Omnes'."

The coal mines of Longstreet, at Carbon Hill, Ohio, valued at $20,000, were burned Sunday.

During the past week silver dollars of the value of $1,032,900 were put in circulation by the mints.

A fire on the water front at Portland, Maine, swept away establishments valued at nearly $250,000.

This has proven to be a bad year for disgruntled democrats to try to lead people off into independent movements.

All the prisoners in the jail of Prince George county, Maryland, escaped by burning a lock from the door.

A Mexican girl died of yellow fever Monday at Brownsville, being the first case in several weeks.

Pensacola reports one death and six new cases.

Kansas City Times: "It was no cyclone. It was a straight wind that carried all before it. It left no debris on the field even. It was a trash mover."

Even Iowa is reforming. Hale, democrat, is elected from the Burlington district by a handsome majority, and three other democrats from elsewhere in the state.

Just think of it! The dispatches say, "Stable, republican, is elected congressman-at-large from Iowa, by a small majority." What is the matter with the people?

The new iron steamship Aragon loaded with rails for the Canadian Pacific road, has been stranded off Anticosti island, and it is feared that she will prove a total wreck.

A collision of mail and passenger trains on the road between Paris and Boulogne resulted in injury to many passengers, including the Countess of Somers, but no one was killed.

A famine is said to be impending in the counties of Dugal, Clare, and Roscommon, in Ireland. Potatoes have proven a failure, and storms devastated the flax and clover of the poor.

The Lake Shore train from Chicago, which passed through Cleveland, Ohio, Sunday night, killed John Jones, an employee of the Whipple Manufacturing company, who was working on the track.

The officers of the Chicago and Alton road have a conference with the Missouri Pacific at St. Louis, to discuss the proposed consolidation of the two lines.

It was news that wasington that in the United States a woman will be invited to select the president of the international commission organized to determine the value of property destroyed at Alexandria.

Chicago Times: General Sherman returns from office February 8, 1884. The event is highly interesting because the present bogus map of the battlefield of Shiloh may perhaps then be corrected in accordance with the facts."

James Beau, a desperado from Texas, who lay in wait at Wellington, Kansas, with twelve shots and two Winchester rifle balls in his body, died Monday of his wounds. He killed City Marshal Brown at Chadwell last summer.

Henry Clay, a grandson of the great Kentucky statesman, who was a member of the Hovgate expedition to the north pole, gave an illustrated lecture before the Polytechnic society of Louisville, last Monday evening, of the house being crowded to its utmost capacity.

Mr. U. G. Phizging had the bad taste in a barouche at the opera house, Monday night, to garble a sentence of scripture to make it serve his purpose as an alleged witicism. He cried out, "O, death where is thy sting?" O, Graves, where is thy victory?" Maybe he knows, by this time, where the victory is, and it can be no consolation to him to know, in addition, that his manner of advocating Mr. Crisp materially aided in that person's overwhelming and humiliating defeat.

THE ELECTIONS.

Our news columns today tell of a political victory for the democratic party in the nation, state, congressional district and county such as has never before been recorded in the history of our country. Not only have all the southern states except Virginia rolled up large democratic victories, but democratic governors are elected in Connecticut, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Michigan, Colorado, Kansas, Pennsylvania and New York, all states which gave their electoral votes to Garfield, and in California which now has a republican governor. Beside which the democrats have secured majorities in the legislatures of New York, New Jersey, California, Indiana, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and probably Illinois.

The democrats have almost everywhere made gains of congressmen, and so great is their success in this direction that there is now no doubt that they will have the lower house of congress by an overwhelming majority.

In our own state the democratic vote has been so much swollen that the majorities for state officers will be largely increased over the election of two years ago; and while we then lost five congressional districts, four to the greenbackers and one to the republicans, the prospect is quite flattering that we shall have a solid democratic delegation in congress.

In our congressional district we have gained a most signal and important victory. Afraid to make a square fight for the principles of their party the corrupt, bargaining republicans of Kansas City entered into an alliance with a political free lance whom they had two years before designated as a thief, a blatant demagogue without ability, and a bombastic egotist, in the hope of driving all their own voters into the ranks with the party lash, and of attracting all the floating and disreputable elements in the district.

In the last they were eminently successful, and the bumper element was everywhere in full accord with them, but respectable republicans, as a rule, refused to take the bait. It is confidently alleged that neither Cols. Van Horn, Warner or Case, the leading republicans of the district, voted for Col. Crisp. At any rate they did not enter all heartily into the campaign, and that the substantial republican business men of Kansas City supported Mr. Graves is attested by the fact that he carried every ward in Kansas City, and Jackson county outside of the city. The deliberate attempt to sacrifice all political decency, to the extent of the most subject self-satisfaction on the part of the Journal, which led in the trading and trafficking, was a disgusting and revolting spectacle. So have the respectable republicans of Kansas City recorded themselves, not only by voting for Mr. Graves, but by defeating the Journal's county and city tickets as well. In this county the negroes and the Concordia Germans voted pretty solidly for Col. Crisp, Kansas for whom their own party organ had declared no decent republican could vote. From the other republican elements there was a large defection, and Mr. Graves, despite the loss of a few democratic votes, ran very considerably ahead of his ticket.

As to our county ticket, the substantial, tax-paying citizens of the county are to be congratulated upon the result. The majorities are increased by an average of about 200 over the vote of two years ago, and this despite a campaign against it of lies and misrepresentation such as has seldom, if ever, been equaled in this county.

Take it all together, in the nation, in the state, in the district and in the county, it is a grand and a glorious victory. Nationally it means defeat to bossism; and a rebuke to political manipulation by the officeholders of the country. It means a rebuke to Hubbellism, and to the Annapolis proved plan of carrying elections with "soap." It means lower taxes—smaller appropriations. It means a revision and material lowering of the present iniquitous, robber tariff. It means local self-government—states left free to manage their own affairs without federal interference or protection, dictation and Grover Cleveland's 196,000 majority means a trumped-up endorsement of that grand old democratic doctrine. It means a reform of the civil service that will eliminate the minor federal officers as factors in partisan political contests. It means honesty, frugality, democratic simplicity, and an equal justice to all men, special privilege to none, rights of corporations guaranteed and protected, and the people's interests no less zealously defended. In other words it means less government, less officials, less tax-exacters, less meddling over the people by Congress, and less of the "Chandler's Congress." It short, it means a purer government or a fust.

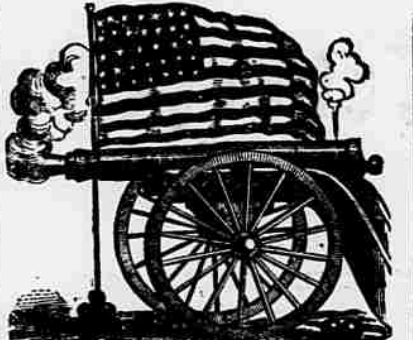

Allen Campbell says he believes he will have to move to Concordia. Better be progressive and stay where people are up to the times.

A OARD OF THANKS FROM MR. GRAVES.

To the Voters of the Fifth Missouri Congressional District:

I desire in the public manner to return to you my heartfelt thanks for the evidence of confidence in me which you have displayed by your generally and generously endorsing by your votes my candidature for congress. The faint and inadequate tribute of thanks I extend to republicans, as well as democrats, for without their votes my candidature would have been secured by no flattering a majority. In return I can only say that I appreciate the honor conferred upon me by your vote, and the importance of the office to which you have raised me. While the trust remains in my hands I hope that no act will ever bring me into disrepute. As a citizen of our common country I shall endeavor, above and beyond all things, to defend in honor, protect the rights of the people, and protect the interests of the mass of the people. As representative of the fifth Missouri congressional district I shall endeavor to do all in my power to advance the good and welfare of Kansas City. In all things I am now the ambitious desire of my heart to be a faithful, active, and useful representative of the whole people of the district, regardless of party. With renewed thanks, I am

Respectfully ALEXANDER GRAVES.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 7.—Private advices to prominent politicians indicate the probable election of Edgerly, democrat, for governor. Republicans claim the election of Haines, republican, in congress. The First district, although the democrats do not concede it. Both branches of the legislature will be republican. The republican county officers of this county were elected.

RHODE ISLAND.
Rhode Island goes republican by a largely reduced majority.

MARYLAND.
Maryland is democratic by usual majority. Montgomery Blair defeated for congress.
